

HOOKED TAG

Unique ID: NMS-A12664

Object type certainty: Certain

Workflow status: Awaiting validation

A hooked tag. A heart shaped or sub-triangular plate with slightly convex sides, a double notch at the top, pierced twice for attachment. The lower half and hook are missing. The surface is decorated with multiple ring and dot, the central dot of several of which has gone all the way through and become a hole. The surface is corroded in places. Length at least 17mm, width 15mm. Cf. Read (2008, 22, no.102) for a possibly similar example.
