Unique ID: NMS-A136C6

Object type certainty: Certain

Workflow status: Awaiting validation

An unidentified and undated object. A flat, rectangular sheet, broken at one end across one of at least two ring and dots, the dots of which are deeply punched and the ring wide and shallow. The possible position of a third ring and dot is covered by the head of a large iron rivet which secures a fragment of sooted sheet to the reverse, the original edge of which does not survive. Measuring 15mm x at least 25mm.
