

COIN

Unique ID: BM-737D80

Object type certainty: Certain

Workflow status: Published

A worn silver denarius, possibly a cast contemporary copy, of Julia Aquilia Severa, dating to the period AD 220 to 222 (Reece period 10). CONCORDIA reverse type depicting Concordia standing left holding patera and cornucopiae; possibly star in left field. Mint unclear: Rome or Antioch. cf. RIC IV, Pt II, p. 47, no. 225 (with star in left field) or 227 (without star in left field). The coin is too worn to determine bust style for mint attribution.
