Unique ID: DENO-ED5BF8

Object type certainty: Certain

Workflow status: Awaiting validation

A complete but worn and bent Medieval Anglo-Norman silver penny of William II (AD 1087-1100). Cross in quatrefoil type minted 1089-1092?. Probably Lincoln mint or possibly Chester and of uncertain moneyer.

The name of the moneyer appears to end with the letter F (possibly E). The spacing between letters, however, does not appear to give sufficient space for SVNOVLF.ON.LEGECE which appears to be the only match listed in North for this combination of letters.

Coin Reference: Type William II BMC ii, North No.852.
