

COIN

Unique ID: LVPL-959C33

Object type certainty: Certain

Workflow status: Awaiting validation

A silver sixpence probably of William III, (1694-1702). Obverse: []; laureate bust right. Reverse: []; crowned shields.

The coin is worn on each face and has been deliberately smoothed and bent into a very gentle S shape. These features suggest it was re-used as a love token.
