BUCKLE

Unique ID: SUSS-BBB436

Object type certainty: Certain

Workflow status: Awaiting validation

An incomplete Post Medieval cast copper alloy double loop trapezoidal buckle with moulded decoration on the loops, dating to c. AD 1620-1680. The buckle frame is trapezoidal with pointed ends expanded and has a D-shaped section with a flat back. Triangular integrally cast projections extend from either edge of the frame, and two projecting lobes are present at either end of the central strap bar. The buckle is a grey colour and is in fair condition. The pin is missing. A similar example can be found in Whitehead, (2003), p.82, no.513.
