

SEAL

Unique ID: WILT-0432F3

Object type certainty: Certain

Workflow status: Awaiting validation

An incomplete post-medieval lead cloth seal, probably dating to c. AD 1550-1800. Disc-1 of a 2- or 4-part cloth seal. Disc-1 is stamped with an incuse T, whilst an incomplete privy-mark, stamped in low relief survives on the integral rivet.

It is c 21.50mm in diameter, 3.0mm thick and weighs 4.9g.

This was probably a cloth seal used by a weaver, dyer or searcher. The use of a privy or merchants mark suggests a broad late 16th to 18th century date. A number of comparable seals are published by Egan (1994: 181-183).
