JETTON

Unique ID: LVPL-A91FC3

Object type certainty: Certain

Workflow status: Awaiting validation

Copper alloy medieval jetton (c.AD 1300-1500). The jetton is extremely worn with few features recognisable. The obverse appears to depict a head so it is likely the jetton is 'Moor's Head' type French jetton. cf. Mitchiner 1988: 157-158, cf. nos. 368-378a.
